

Erasmus+

Creativity STOPS Bullying

Erasmus+, KA227, project:

„Creative Activities to Prevent Bullying on Special Needs Students”

Nr. 2020-1-RO01-KA227-SCH-095427

Project started: 2021/03/01

Duration: 24 months

The goal of the project is to provide a widely usable training solutions and bullying prevention and intervention skills, as well as to raise awareness on school bullying danger among the target groups as a stringent issue with long term consequences on teenagers' mental and emotional health.

The project objectives are:

- Raise awareness on bullying prevention and correct intervention and equip over 12000 students from special learning and mixed schools with preventing and intervention knowledge, skills, increased empathy, tolerance and positive attitude by developing a participatory interactive digital exhibition and creative workshop guidelines in 24 months.
- Raise awareness, increase competence and intervention capacity in bullying prevention and efficient intervention of 10000 teachers and educators from special education and mixed schools and provide them creative and effective methodologies, methods, tools in a training package consisting of a piloted curriculum and training materials, creative and coping workshops and an interactive digital exhibition for the diminishing of this important educational problem in the European schools in the 24 months project span.

Project Target Groups

At personal level:

- teachers,
- school support staff from special education and mixed schools,
- trainers,
- students,
- parents,
- special needs persons NGO`s other educators interested.

At educational level:

- schools,
- universities,
- educational institutions,
- students and parents' organizations.

At professional organizations level:

- teacher associations.

At administrative level:

- local and regional government dealing with formal education,
- school authorities,
- municipalities.

At European level:

- The web portal of European commission,
- Erasmus+ dissemination platform,
- International Labour Organization (Education sector: Teachers, educators and their organisations),
- School Education Gateway,
- eTwinning platforms,
- Open Education Europa platform.

Project Results:

- curricula for teachers "Creative Methods and Tools for Bullying Prevention in Special Education"
- training materials for the "Creative Methods and Tools for Bullying Prevention in Special Education"
- guidelines for teachers creative and coping workshops "Stories about bullying: learn and prevent"
- an interactive digital exhibition "My illustrated story"
- a school awareness campaign organized in 5 countries in special and mixed schools, addressing to students and teachers in social media, schools, families to prevent bullying and promote tolerance.

First Kick off online meeting
23 March 2021

